Psychoanalytic Training Program Application for Admission

Entrance requirements:

- Graduation from an accredited academic institution with a master's degree or higher. (Applicants with master's degrees from outside the US should speak with the Director of Psychoanalytic Training for foreign degree equivalency evaluation instructions.)
- Demonstration of appropriate personal and professional background to undertake comprehensive and intensive training in psychoanalysis.
- Applicants whose first language is not English must demonstrate the ability to work in English in the nuanced, complex setting of psychoanalytic sessions. Scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) exam or equivalent may be requested.

Please include the following materials with your application: (Please send or email to Dr. Marcelo Gomes, LP, SCP, Director of Psychoanalytic Training, Blanton-Peale Institute, 7 West 30th Street, New York, NY 10001, marcelo.gomes@blantonpeale.org).

- Official transcripts sent directly from all colleges, seminaries, and other graduate programs.
- An application fee of $75. Please make your check payable to Blanton-Peale Institute.
- A curriculum vitae or resume.
- A personal statement that will provide the Admissions Committee with a sense of who you are and what has brought you to psychoanalytic training (suggested length 200 to 1000 words):
 - What is your interest in psychoanalysis?
 - What is your interest in spirituality?
 - What is your interest in diversity, culture and inclusivity?
 - What is your interest in post-Freudian and contemporary psychoanalytic perspectives?
 - What part(s) of your background have contributed to your decision to apply to the Blanton-Peale Psychoanalytic Training Program?
 - What prior experience have you had with psychotherapy or psychoanalysis?
 - What other information can you provide to support your application for psychoanalytic training?
- Two letters of recommendation sent directly from persons who are familiar enough with you to be able to provide us with meaningful information about your preparation and appropriateness for psychoanalytic training at Blanton-Peale.
- A brief statement indicating specific occupational and financial resources that will support you during your psychoanalytic training at Blanton-Peale.
